The Designated Hitter For the Corporate League!

A summer afternoon at the ballpark.
The smell of hotdogs fills the air.
Vendors march up and down the stadium bleachers barking Peeeeenuts!,
Paaaaapcorn!, Craaaaacker Jacks!
The organ plays its familiar rallying cry:

BUMH BUMH BUMH BUMH BUMH
BUMH BUMH BUMH BUMH...

da da da DA da DAAAH ... CHAAAAAARGE!

The pitcher leans over, his right hand resting on his back, slowly spinning the baseball with his fingers. Feeling the stitches, he settles on a grip and nods to the catcher. He straightens up and checks the bases, holding his hands together as if in prayer. His focus narrows on the strike zone, he takes a deep breath, rares back and fires a zinger. The batter lets loose a mighty swing and there's the CRACK! of the bat. The roar of the crowd engulfs the stadium! Homers... Dingers... Grand Slams! SUCCESS!
